CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Holy Scripture never orders and never counsels us to do the impossible. By these words, then, the Lord Jesus does not command us to accomplish the very works and ways of God, which no one can attain in perfection. But He invites us to model ourselves on them, as much as is possible, by applying ourselves to imitate them. We can do this with the help of grace and we should do so. And as the Bishop John said, nothing is more suitable to man than to imitate his Creator, and to carry out, to the degree that he is able, the will of God." ---- St. Thomas Aquinas, The Ways of God

PRAYER FOR THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY

"Father in heaven, all creation rightly gives you praise, for all life and all holiness come from you. In the plan of your wisdom she who bore the Christ in her womb was raised body and soul in glory to be with him in heaven. May we follow her example in reflecting your holiness and join in her hymn of endless love and praise. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen"

ON THIS DAY IN CHRISTIAN HISTORY

August 14, 1248: Construction of the Cologne Cathedral begins. Workers completed it on the same date in 1880. It is a renowned monument of German Catholicism and Gothic architecture and was declared a World Heritage Site in 1996.

THE FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION (EVENING MASS MONDAY 15TH AUG 7:30PM)

The commemoration of the death of the Blessed Virgin Mary (the Dormition, or falling asleep, as it was known in the East) is known as the Assumption because of the tradition that her body did not decay but that she was raised up, body and soul, into heaven. This tradition was already present in the sixth century; by the beginning of the twentieth century it was widespread; and after consulting the views of bishops all over the world, the Pope formally and infallibly declared the doctrine of the Assumption to be part of the authentic and ancient doctrine of the universal Church.
