CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

"This hill, though high, I covet to ascend;
The difficulty will not me offend,
For I perceive the way to life lies here.
Come, pluck up, heart, let's neither faint nor fear.
Better, though difficult, the right way to go,
Than wrong, though easy, where the end is woe."

John Bunyan, The Pilgrims Progress

ST BERNARDS PRAYER TO THE VIRGIN MARY

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

ON THIS DAY IN CHRISTIAN HISTORY

August 20, 1912: William Booth, founder and first General of the Salvation Army, dies. His Christian movement spread from London, England, to many parts of the world and is known for being one of the largest distributors of humanitarian aid.

ST BERNARD OF CLAIRVAUX (1090 – 1153)

On August 20 the Church celebrates the feast day of St. Bernard of Clairvaux, a Doctor of the Church thanks to his writings and sermons which greatly influenced Europe during the 12th century, and his numerous efforts which helped to avoid a schism in the Church in 1130. Bernard was a man of great holiness and wisdom, and although he was often in very poor health, he was active in many of the great public debates of the time. He strongly opposed the luxurious lives of some of the clergy, and fought against the persecution of the Jews. He was also a prolific writer, of an inspiring rather than a technical kind. Bernard was canonized just 21 years after his death by Pope Alexander III.
