PRAYER FOR HUMILITY

O God, who resists the proud, and gives grace to the humble: grant us the virtue of true humility, where of Your Only-begotten son showed in Himself a pattern for Your faithful; that we may never by our pride provoke Your anger, but rather by our meekness receive the riches of Your grace. Amen.

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

"Late have I loved you, beauty so old and so new: late have I loved you. And see, you were within and I was in the external world and sought you there, and in my unlovely state I plunged into those lovely created things which you made. You were with me, and I was not with you. The lovely things kept me far from you, though if they did not have their existence in you, they had no existence at all. You called and cried out loud and shattered my deafness. You were radiant and resplendent, you put to flight my blindness. You were fragrant, and I drew in my breath and now pant after you. I tasted you, and I feel but hunger and thirst for you. You touched me, and I am set on fire to attain the peace which is yours."

FEAST OF ST AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO (354 – 430)

The 28th August sees the Feast of St. Augustine. Augustine had a brilliant legal and academic career, but after his conversion he returned home to Africa and led an ascetic life. He was elected

St Augustine by Antonio Rodriguez

Bishop of Hippo and spent 34 years looking after his flock, teaching them, strengthening them in the faith and protecting them strenuously against the errors of the time. He wrote an enormous amount and left a permanent mark on both philosophy and theology. His Confessions, as dazzling in style as they are deep in content, are a landmark of world Literature. Augustine is recognized as a saint in the Catholic Church, the Eastern Orthodox Church, and the Anglican Community.

Augustine died on the 28th August 430 of a fever as the Vandals (a Germanic tribe) invaded Roman North Africa. His theology became one of the main pillars on which the church of the next 1,000 years was built
